Brisbane Showgrounds buzzing with big weekend of events

The Brisbane Showgrounds will be a hive of activity this weekend, with six events from a warehouse sale to a comedy show taking place, marking the most events the venue has hosted in a single weekend this year.

A free King St Kids Festival family-fun day, South African comedian Kevin Fraser's 'Africa is a Feeling' tour and an athlete gala dinner will be held this Saturday. Meanwhile the Fashion Thrift Society clothing market and Your Local Wedding Guide Brisbane Expo will take place on Sunday, while the Triumph Warehouse Sale will be held over both days, with nothing over $25.

More than 7,300 people are expected to attend the events across the weekend, which will utilise six different indoor and outdoor venues including Alexandria Park, John Reid Pavilion, Marquee 1, Sideshow Alley and the Exhibition Building.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said it was the busiest weekend so far this year in terms of the number of events being held at the venue.

"With 21 event spaces, the Brisbane Showgrounds offers the largest and most versatile range of indoor and outdoor venues for hire in Queensland so we're able to successfully host multiple events simultaneously," Mr Coyle said.

"We have such a large variety of events taking place this Saturday and Sunday from a comedy show and gala dinner to thrift shopping, a wedding expo and a family-fun day, so there really is something for everyone to enjoy at the Brisbane Showgrounds this weekend."
