Brie-lliant cheese festival rolls into the Brisbane Showgrounds

Cheese enthusiasts are preparing their palates for the sold-out Mould – A Cheese Festival which returns to the Brisbane Showgrounds this Friday (May 24).

This celebration of top-quality Australian artisan cheese is set to bring a delicious line up of cheese tastings, drinks and tasty accoutrements for attendees to sample.

Guests will be able to experience all the wonders of cheese with a range to suit every palate with more than 80 varieties from hard to soft, aromatic to mild and everything in between.

Lucky ticket holders will be treated to all cheese tastings, a cooler bag to take your goodies home and a REVEL stemless wine glass.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said Mould – A Cheese Festival has proved extremely popular once again, with tickets for all three days sold out two weeks prior to the event.

“It is incredible to see this great event come back to the Brisbane Showgrounds for another successful year to celebrate Australian cheese,” Mr Coyle said.

“We are delighted to host such a coveted event within the Brisbane community that showcases Australian cheese and cheesemakers.”

The event will be held in the John Reid Pavilion and run from 5pm-9pm Friday 24 May, 11am-3pm Saturday 25 May, 4pm-8pm Saturday 25 May and 11am-3pm Sunday 26 May. To find out more click here.
